Course Description

LANG1210 is a comprehensive Japanese course that builds on learners' basic understanding of hiragana, katakana, and grammar while developing listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills.

Who Should Enroll:

- Beginners: The enrollment for this course is limited to beginners whose Japanese level is below N4 for JLPT. This course is suitable for students who have the basic knowledge of hiragana, katakana and fundamental Japanese grammar.
- For beginners seeking to develop practical communication skills only, consider LANG1211: Communicative Japanese for Beginners I (2 credits). If you prefer to focus on building vocabulary and grammar knowledge, the self-paced online course LANG1212: Japanese Vocabulary and Grammar Essentials I (1 credit) may be more suitable. Both LANG1211 & LANG1212 run over 8 weeks and use a pass/fail grading system.
- Entry Quiz and Beginner Declaration Form: Students are required to take an entry quiz to prove that they are beginners (below N4 level) and submit a beginner declaration form to register for this course.

Course content:

- Basics of Japanese: We will start with reviewing hiragana and katakana, the fundamental writing systems in Japanese, similar to the alphabet in English.
- Integrated Skills for Japanese: You will learn the fundamental skills in the Japanese language, including speaking, listening, writing, reading, basic grammar, and related Japanese culture in this course.
- Textbook Coverage: We will use the following textbook, covering Lessons 1 to 12:

『大家的日本語 初級 I 改訂版』 Minna no Nihongo 2nd Edition (大新書局, 2015)

Intended Learning Outcomes (ILOs)

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

1. Engage in Basic Conversations: Participate in basic Japanese conversations, including greetings, self-introductions, and asking and answering questions about names, nationalities, and daily activities.
2. Describe Locations and Ownership: Describe locations, affiliations, ownership, and the existence of people, animals, and objects using appropriate vocabulary and grammatical structures, including movement and transportation.
3. Express Preferences and Opinions: Express preferences, opinions, and reasons using adjectives and appropriate grammatical structures.
4. Recognize and Interpret Language: Recognize and interpret basic Japanese vocabulary, grammar, and writing systems in daily communication.
5. Understand Japanese Culture: Demonstrate an understanding of Japanese culture and social norms.

Course AI Policy

At HKUST, we embrace innovation and technology, including Generative AI. Some of the assignments in this course aim to foster innovative thinking by using chatbots for both language learning and cultural exploration.

Our approach relies firmly on pedagogical principles, with an ethical commitment to ensure fairness in the use of AI. If students use AI tools in course assessments, they must adhere to the principles of academic integrity.

To learn more about how to use GenAI tools appropriately in language courses, students are required to complete a Canvas learning module developed by the Center for Language Education. This module can be found on the course Canvas site. Students should ensure they have completed it before attending class.

Communication and Feedback

Assessment marks for individual assessed tasks will be communicated via Canvas within two weeks of submission. Feedback on assignments will include strengths and areas for improvement where relevant. Students who have further questions about the feedback including marks should consult the instructor within five working days after the feedback is received.

Resubmission Policy

Resubmissions are not accepted, except in exceptional circumstances.

Required Texts and Materials

Course materials and additional resources are provided via Canvas.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to adhere to the university's academic integrity policy. Students are expected to uphold HKUST's Academic Honor Code and to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. The University has zero tolerance of academic misconduct. Please refer to Academic Integrity | HKUST – Academic Registry for the University's definition of plagiarism and ways to avoid cheating and plagiarism.
